NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE EUROPEAN SITUATION

Opposing Armies in West Flanders Stand Virtually as They Have Stood for Days—Germans Keep Hammering Away at Line of Allies, Trying to Get to Coast—The Allies Attempt to Go to Ostend.

BATTLEFIELDS OF THE FAR EAST ARE NOW THE CENTER OF INTEREST FOR WAR EXPERTS

Russians Are Putting Up More Vigorous Offensive Against Germans and Austrians, Who Are Reported as Falling Back—Bombardment of the Dardanelles Continues—The Moslems Are Loyal.

London, Nov. 5.—No decision has been reached in the West Flanders campaign, and the opposing armies now stand virtually as they have stood for many days.

While the Germans keep hammering away at the allies around Ypres, which route they chose for their march to the coast after they had found the road along the sea barred, and the allies are making an effort to move northward to Ostend, neither has gotten far. The Belgians and those supporting them have found that the floods they created to stop the German advance are hindering their own movements, although they have occupied some villages, including Hixchoote, which had been in the possession of the Germans.

Around Ypres the German offensive, according to the allies' accounts, has met with no success. In fact, it seems that all along the line there has been merely a repetition of artillery duels and of infantry attacks and counter attacks which sometimes succeed but more often do not.

On the eastern frontier more wide, sweeping movements are being made by the opposing armies. The Russians from all reports have driven back the Germans center to the river Warthe, in the Russian Poland section, have held back a German offensive movement from East Prussia, and are straightening out their line for a more vigorous offensive against the Austrians, who have been trying to beat their left wing in Galicia.

It is to the battles in these regions that the British military men are looking. They declare that if the Russians can keep up their successful fighting against the Austrians and Germans, relief will come to the allied armies in the west, because of the necessity for a withdrawal of German army corps from France and Belgium to protect Silesia and East Prussia. These military observers express belief that the Turkish threat against Russian Caucasus will weaken the Russian armies by withdrawal from Poland, but the Russian authorities say they have sufficient troops on the spot to deal with Turkey.

The first reports of the fighting between the Russians and the Turks are as conflicting as were the first Austrian and Russian accounts of the warfare in Galicia. Each contender claims to have invaded the other's territory and to have defeated his frontier armies. These fights, however, probably have been only advance guard affairs, and it is thought here that some time may elapse before a pitched battle takes place.

The Anglo-French fleet continues to bombard the Dardanelles forts, but the Turks say the warships have inflicted no damage. In other parts of Turkish waters British warships are busy. The government, however, has ordered that holy places shall be respected by the British gun fire, as long as the Indian subjects visiting them are not molested.

This necessity for respecting the feelings of her Moslem subjects, it is considered here may hamper England somewhat in the prosecution of the war against Turkey, but with her large Moslem population, it cannot be disregarded. In addition to assurances from the Indian princes, England had been informed by Moslem leaders in the Malay States that her war against Turkey will not affect the loyalty of the Moslems to the Empire.

The result of the naval battle in the Pacific between British and German squadrons, details of which still are lacking here, naturally is the most discussed subject of the war in England. It is realized that the worst accounts, which include the sinking of the Monmouth and serious damage to the Good Hope, are probably true.

"It is the price of the admiralty," says the average Englishman of this and other losses to ships since the war commenced. The balance thus far is on the side of Germany, but every Britisher seems confident when the main fleets meet this discrepancy will be more than wiped out.

It is expected here that should the German fortress of Tsing Tau fall, the British and Japanese vessels engaged there will start out in an endeavor to round up the eight or nine German cruisers still at large.

GERMANY ISSUES DENIAL.

Declares Reports Coming from Petrograd of Results in East False. London, Nov. 5.—The following Marconi dispatch has been received from Berlin: "Main army headquarters yesterday denied reports that the Russians had taken German prisoners; that the Germans had left their wounded on the battlefield, or that they had lost machine guns.

"Vienna reports officially that the situation in Galicia is unchanged. In the Macva region the Austrians captured large quantities of supplies and locomotives from the Russians who are retreating hastily.

"In Egypt the English have abandoned the frontier and withdrawn across the Suez Canal.

"Shanghai newspapers report that the German artillery fire is systematically destroying the entrenched positions occupied by the Japanese around Tsing Tau. The Japanese have postponed indefinitely their attacks. The waters around Tsing Tau are now with mines.

"English people in Germany are telegraphing to their government, asking some relaxation of the measures adopted with regard to German residents in England. They also ask their government to treat Germans in Great Britain with the same consideration thus far shown to Englishmen in Germany.

"A German back from one of the English concentration camps states that within one week 17 German civilian prisoners died there as a consequence of ill-treatment and bad food.

TO MAKE NUMEROUS CHANGES IN HOUSE

Democrats Will Have Perfect Organization

TO CONTROL CONGRESS

Majority Promises to Re-open New York Exchange—Court Order, Expected Today, Is Only Thing Lacking.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Many changes in the organization of the National House of Representatives will be made when Champ Clark and "Uncle Joe" Cannon once more face each other across the center aisle at the beginning of the next Congress. The dwindling of the Democratic majority, which will drop after the close of the December session from 140 to 123, will necessitate a general shifting of the working order in the House.

With their slender majority the Democrats, while able to re-elect Speaker Clark and retain control of the committee, will be forced to maintain an almost perfect organization. Even with a full attendance in the House, a shift of 12 votes would throw the control to the minority side. Practically complete reorganization tonight gave the Democrats 239, Republicans 196, Progressives 7, Socialists 1, Independents 1, doubtful 1. This would give the Democrats a plurality of 21 over the Republicans and a majority of 24 over the combined opposition.

This narrow margin probably will result in a re-arrangement of committee representation, the Democrats now holding overwhelming majorities in all of the standing committees. The falling out of the Progressives from 19 to eight probably will cut down their committee representation materially and even move some of the few important places they held in the present House.

Kitchin's Leadership. Democratic leadership in the House will undergo great changes. Representative Underwood was elected to the Senate and will leave the House at the close of the December session. Representing Kitchin, of the Carolinian, ranking Democrat on the Ways and Means committee, will claim the Democratic leadership by right of seniority and is expected to have the support of Southern Democrats.

Representative Mann, of Illinois, undoubtedly will retain the Republican leadership. The election will vacate five of the 14 Democratic places on the ways and means committee. Representative Underwood goes to the Senate; Representative Hammond was elected Governor of Minnesota; Representative Mitchell, of Massachusetts, was defeated at the polls; Representative Palmer, of Pennsylvania, was defeated; and Representative Stanley, of Kentucky, sought the Senatorial nomination in Kentucky, and lost his bid.

Representative Murdock, of Kansas, the Progressive leader and member of the committee, lost his seat in an effort to go to the Senate. The Republican members of the committee were returned and in addition Ebenezer Hill, tariff expert and one of the framers of the Payne law, was sent back. He probably will fight for his old place on the committee.

Two Lost on Rules. Two Democratic members of the Rules committee will not return. Representative Hardwick, of Georgia, goes to the Senate, and Representative Goldfogle, of New York, was defeated by a Socialist, Major London. Representative Kelly, of Pennsylvania, Progressive member of the committee, was defeated by a Republican and the Progressives may lose their place on the committee.

The labor committee lost two Democrats, Representatives Balto, of Illinois, and Walsh, of New Jersey, who represented the laboring community. Representative McDonald, of Michigan, the Progressive member, also was defeated. Four Democratic members of the banking and currency committee failed to re-election. They were Representatives Korbly, of Indiana; Bulkeley, of Ohio; Neely, of Kansas, and Schellenger, of Colorado. Representative Hobson, of Alabama, a prominent member of the naval affairs committee, lost his place in an effort to defeat Representative Underwood for the Senate.

Representative Bathrick, of Ohio, and Gerry, of Rhode Island, also will be missing from naval affairs. The Democrats lost five members on the military affairs committee, the Republicans one, and the Progressives one. The Judiciary committee will be practically unchanged.

In the Senate administration leaders welcomed the indicated increase in the Democratic majority. The possibility of the defeat of Senator Newlands, of Nevada, threatened to leave vacant the chairmanship of the interstate commerce committee.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY SURE

Latest Returns Show Twenty-four in House and Thirteen in Senate. New York, Nov. 5.—The membership of the Sixty-fourth Congress, as the result of Tuesday's election, excluding a few contests still in doubt will be as follows: House of Representatives—Democrats 239; Republicans 196; Progressives 7; Socialist 1; Independent 1. Democratic majority 24. Senate—Democrats 63; Republicans 39; Progressive 1. Democratic majority 13.

Senatorial contests still in doubt tonight were in Colorado, Nevada and Wisconsin. Democratic leaders still claimed the election of Charles S. Thomas, over Hubert Work in Colorado, and of Francis D. Newlands, over Samuel Platt in Nevada. Republican leaders claimed the election of Francis E. McGovern of Paul A. Hastings, Democrat, in Wisconsin; but through an error in counting returns, discovered

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET OPEN TODAY

For Restricted Trading in Future Deliveries.

PRICES WILL BE FIXED

Rapid Progress Made in Plan to Reopen New York Cotton Exchange—Court Order, Expected Today, Is Only Thing Lacking.

Liverpool, Nov. 5.—On and after tomorrow and until further notice the cotton market here will be open during the usual business hours for restricted trading in futures for May-June American and January Egyptian deliveries. Trading will not be permitted below a minimum price to be fixed from time to time by the directors of the exchange and all transactions might be reported at once and officially quoted on the quotation board.

All buying orders for May-June American and January Egyptian may be executed, but only sales in liquidation of old business are permissible. All contracts might be submitted for classification to the association. Contracts will be subject to the same regulations regarding settlements as contracts hitherto arranged through the bazaar. The spot supervision committee is dissolved and the obligation to cover futures against spot sales is no longer in force. All regulations previously in force with regard to the sale of new cotton are now withdrawn. Until further notice the minimum trading price will be 4.25d for American cotton and 6.95d for Egyptian.

RAPID PROGRESS MADE

On Plan to Reopen New York Cotton Exchange—Announcement Today.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Liverpool cotton exchange will open tomorrow for restricted trading, it was announced in an official telegram received today by the New York Cotton Exchange. Trading will be in May-June deliveries. Operations will be confined to liquidation of old contracts and new buying. The exchange will also be open for the sale of new cotton. The date of reopening immediately after receiving a court order permitting sale to the proposed corporation of bankers and merchants interested in the exchange was regarded in trade circles here as a step toward resumption of general business in the futures market, closed since the end of July. It is anticipated here that acceptance of new buying orders will greatly excite the market, particularly as the minimum price fixed by American cotton is considered far under parity with prevailing values in the south and should consequently prove attractive to buyers.

No progress was made today in the negotiations between the Liverpool Cotton Exchange and the American Cotton Exchange. Liverpool reported that 100,000 bales had been liquidated there by ballot on Tuesday, releasing 50,000 bales of the straddle interest for ballot on Wednesday. The Liverpool market was equal to only 7 cents for December here under the old agreement and local traders have decided not to ballot. The Liverpool market, however, is not considered here as a resumption of business under the corporation syndicate plans of taking over old contracts.

SUCCESS IS APPARENT.

Conferees at Treasury Between Agents of Two Governments Ends. Washington, Nov. 5.—Although there were no further conferences at the Treasury today on the foreign exchange situation it became more than ever apparent that negotiations between the representatives of the English government and the Federal Reserve Board are reaching a successful conclusion.

Sir George Paish and Basil B. Blackett, the English representatives, probably will see Secretary McAdoo and the board again tomorrow and some definite announcement may follow. Officials said today that reopening of the London and New York stock exchanges was not a purpose of the conferences but it became known that this is considered of vital importance in connection with the foreign exchange problem.

It is fairly well established in the minds of officials here that the New York Exchange will not reopen until after January 1, and it has been the idea in many quarters that the London Exchange will not reopen much sooner. There is every prospect that there will be a further understanding when the exchanges open as to the scope of transactions to be permitted.

It was pointed out today that reopening of the exchanges depends to a large degree on a restoration of normal conditions both here and in England. How near normal England finance may be is hard for officials 3,000 miles away to determine but their close watch of reports of how the English government is financing the war and protecting banks and credit has led some of them to believe that nearly usual situation obtains.

HIGHEST IN TEN YEARS.

Wheat at Portland, Ore., Expected to Go Still Higher. Portland, Ore., Nov. 5.—Wheat reached the highest price in more than ten years here today and indications were that it would go still higher. Top prices were paid for 15,000 bushels, the highest price being $1.22 for 50,000 bushels of blue stem for January delivery. All other varieties sold at a new record.

THANK GOOD HOPE MAY ALSO BE LOST

Vessel Not Heard From Since Naval Engagement Sunday

NINE HUNDRED ABOARD

Intercepted Wireless Call to Flagship Was Not Answered by Crippled Vessel—Germans Think She Also Went to Bottom.

Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 5.—A wireless cry from the British cruiser Glasgow, intercepted by the German victors—was the last word received from Rear Admiral Cradock's squadron after the engagement off the Chilean coast Sunday.

The Germans saw the Monmouth sunk and heard an explosion on board the Good Hope that they believe sent the crippled flagship to the bottom. All that night the German cruiser Nurnberg searched the seas unsuccessfully for the Good Hope. They picked up a radiogram directed to the flagship by the Glasgow. There was no reply.

There were about 650 men on the Monmouth when she disappeared beneath the waves. Admiral Cradock had 900 men with him on the Good Hope.

Whether the Glasgow and the transport Otranto, which fled with her, survived is not known. The whereabouts of the German cruisers Leipzig and Bremen also remains in doubt.

Further details of the battle became known today from statements made by German officers. They commended the bravery of the British ships in the uneven combat and intimated that an effort to save lives would have been made if the weather had permitted.

The engagement was fought in the teeth of the northern trade winds and most hurricane proportions. Small boats could not live in the sea. The heavy weather militated against the larger ships and the Good Hope found her guns almost useless because of the ship's roll.

The German China fleet, the cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Nürnberg, intercepted the Leipzig and Bremen, which had been detached to patrol the coast north of Valparaiso. The unit proceeded southward apparently well aware of the rendezvous of the British off Concepcion bay. At the same time the Monmouth and Glasgow, accompanied by the transport Otranto, were moving north to meet the flagship Good Hope, evidently unaware of the proximity of the Germans. They met off Coronel.

It was 6 o'clock Sunday night when the Germans sighted the three British ships. The latter attempted to alter their course, evidently intending to approach the coast and gain territorial waters, and so avoid an unequal match. The Germans, however, headed them off.

At the moment the German guns were trained the Good Hope was seen coming at full speed. Through good seamanship she managed to join the other British ships. The Britishers had come about and the two squadrons sailed southward in parallel lines with the Germans nearer the coast.

At the moment the lines drew together, the Scharnhorst and Gneisenau simultaneously let go their 12 eight-inch guns at the Good Hope. For several minutes the German shots fell short and the Good Hope had such a roll she could not reply. The smaller cruisers were far out of range.

Then the sea fighters drew in nearer. When the two units were but 6,000 yards apart the Good Hope fired her two 9-inch guns. She was still unable to use her eight 6-inch guns, which, on the gun deck, were so near the water line that the vessel rolled until they were almost awash. A terrible broadside from the Scharnhorst and Gneisenau crippled the British flagship and her engines stopped.

The Monmouth made a dash to cover the Good Hope but the Germans immediately brought into action all the guns of their five vessels. These were directed first against the Monmouth, Glasgow and Otranto. The Otranto, badly damaged, escaped in the gathering darkness. Soon afterwards she was followed by the Glasgow which also had been put out of action but continued apparently seaworthy.

The five German ships continued their attack on the Monmouth and Good Hope and a few minutes later the former sank.

By this time only 4,500 yards separated the Britishers. The Good Hope, badly damaged, hung on until an explosion occurred on board her. She withdrew to the westward at 7:30 (local) and disappeared. The water line that the vessel rolled until they were almost awash. A terrible broadside from the Scharnhorst and Gneisenau crippled the British flagship and her engines stopped.

The Nurnberg searched until daybreak for the wounded ship, when the German officers concluded that she had been lost. Contrary to first reports, the Glasgow did not reach Coronel or Talcahuano, nor did the Otranto and a Chilean steamer, the General, which was an exception of the Leipzig and Bremen, put in here and sailed again yesterday. If they had any word of the Leipzig and Bremen they did not make it known.

WHAT IS COMMERCIAL PAPER?

Federal Reserve Board Struggles for Solution of Question. Washington, Nov. 5.—Definition of commercial paper and the discount rate to be charged by reserve banks on such paper were discussed today by the federal reserve board. No decision was reached, but it became apparent any conclusion reached must be general in terms. It is probable the board will deal with various cases as they arise and that the discount rate will differ in different sections of the country.

SUGAR REFINERS AGAIN REJECTED

Department of Justice Will Not Stop Suit.

CASE IS NOW IN COURT

American Sugar Refining Company Makes Advances to the Department for Settlement of Difference.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The American Sugar Refining Company has made another proposal to the Department of Justice to end the Government anti-trust suit against it and to settle the question of its alleged monopoly of sugar production by an agreed decree such as recently was made in the New Haven railroad civil case.

Although Department of Justice officials declined to discuss the proposal, it was understood here tonight that James M. Beck, counsel for the company, made the proffer and that it was declined. It was said that the fact that the case is now in the courts and that a decision may be expected shortly figured in the refusal. It is not known here just how far the company was willing to go in meeting the department's demands, but it was understood that it would not agree to all those set forth in the government's prayer for a dissolution.

This is not the first time that negotiations have been set afoot to bring this case to an end without resort to the long way through the Federal courts. About a year ago there was an effort to bring about a compromise but it proved unsuccessful just as the present proposal.

The case against the alleged trust was begun about four years ago when suit was filed under the Sherman Act in the Federal Court in New York City. It was directed against the American and other companies, 30 in all, with an aggregate capital of $20,000,000 and the alleged control of a large part of the sugar output of the country.

The government charged by its complaint that the combine was able to fix prices arbitrarily, that it suppressed competition, ground rivals out of business, and violated the law in many ways. Railroad rebates and customs frauds were mentioned as devices to these ends. The bill alleges that the combine controlled about 75 per cent of the output of sugar.

POSTPONEMENT IS DENIED.

Ouster Suit in Louisiana Against Sugar Company Must Continue.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—Request of attorneys for the American Sugar Refining Company for a postponement of the hearing of the ouster and supplemental suits brought against the corporation by the State of Louisiana was denied by Judge Skinner in the civil district court here today. The court directed that immediate consideration be given to that phase of the suit relating to the prayer of the complainant for an injunction to restrain the defendant company from doing business in the state.

The ouster suit which came up for hearing today was filed some weeks ago, after the closing down of the American Sugar Refining Company's Chalmet mine was followed by supplemental suits asking for the injunction, the appointment of a receiver for the corporation's large holdings in Louisiana and judicial sequestration of its property.

The suits were filed by District Attorney Luxenberg at the direction of Governor Hall. Mr. Luxenberg today opposed a postponement of the hearing which will continue tomorrow.

MRS. FLORENCE MCGOWAN

IS FOUND NOT GUILTY Charged With Murder Because She Killed Man Who Ruined Daughter.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Florence McGowan tonight was found not guilty in the Circuit Court here of the charge of having murdered J. Leroy Brown, of this city. The judge's instruction to the jury held that the defendant was shown by the evidence to have committed murder. Spectators in the court room cheered the jury's verdict.

The unwritten law "was the chief defense of the accused, who was the first white woman to be tried here for murder. She shot and killed Brown about two months ago, in the court room in which her trial was held. The motive given for the killing by the defense was that Brown had wronged Mrs. McGowan's daughter. The latter is 18 years old. Brown was 23. The jury considered the evidence six hours before arriving at a verdict. Nine Jurymen are said to have voted for acquittal and three for manslaughter on the first ballot.

Mrs. McGowan resides in Mobile, Ala.

ANNOUNCE SUCCESS OF RELIEF PLAN TODAY

Cotton Loan Fund of $135,000,000 Will Be Completed in Impression.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Adoption of the $135,000,000 cotton loan fund plan by banks and others throughout the country may be announced tomorrow by the Federal Reserve Board. Reports of contributions intended to reach the Treasury today and it was hoped tonight the fund would be fully subscribed within a few hours.

The success of the plan has been so marked that cotton virtually has ceased to be a subject of international worry. The reopening of the Liverpool cotton exchange is counted on to give the market a boom, encourage American and English buyers and put cotton in the position of becoming a most important factor in the reduction of the American balance of debt to Europe.

TAX AMENDMENT SAFE THINKS PELL

Late Reports Strengthen Belief That Nine Carried

SAVED BY 10TH DISTRICT

Member of State Tax Commission Believes Seventh Amendment is Adopted, But if Not, Problem Can Be Solved, He Thinks.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—Judge George P. Pell, of the State tax commission, paid today that he thinks that when the returns are all in from the remote counties it will be found that the tax amendment has been adopted; but, if it has not, there is no use for anybody to be discouraged, for the best taxing systems in America are to be found in the States of Ohio, Wisconsin, West Virginia and Kansas, which have identical the same constitutional provisions North Carolina has, and there is no reason why the State tax commission, of which he is a member, can not do as well.

"If the legislature will listen to the recommendations of the State tax commission," said Judge Pell, "and not throw them in the waste basket as formerly, we are confident that we can perfect a system as good as the States mentioned have."

As reports on the vote on the constitutional amendments dribble in from various parts of the State, there seems to be a strengthening of the impression that at least all of them except the tax amendment have carried. This is especially true as it develops that numbers of the eastern counties gave good majorities for the amendments and the western counties seem to have voted very largely for them, with the principal advantage voting in the counties of the Piedmont section. It is believed here today that the heavy vote for the amendments in the counties constituting the Tenth congressional district will save them, or at least all except the tax amendment, which is believed to have fallen something like 15,000 votes behind the other amendments. It is believed that the State canvassing board to definitely determine the results, most probably.

CRAVEN FOR THEM.

Gives Majority for Amendments and for Democratic Ticket.

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 5.—The board of elections of Craven county met here today and canvassed the vote cast in Tuesday's election. On the amendments the vote was only about 300 and the average majority was 155.

For State Senate, C. D. Ward received 892 votes and Frank Thompson 230; for Congress, G. E. Hood 545; B. H. Crumpler, 81 votes; for the United States Senate, L. Overman, 645; A. A. Whitener, 125; Corporation Commissioner, E. L. Travis, 53; Greer Parsons 125; for the House G. A. Whitford received 969 votes. There was no opposition here.

C. L. Abernethy received 926 votes for solicitor in this district.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY VOTE.

Ticket Divided Between Democrats and Republicans—Amendments.

(By Long Distance Telephone.) Southport, N. C., Nov. 5.—It was hoped today when the county board of canvassers met to declare the result in Tuesday's election that one of the largest vote ever cast in the county was polled, the Republicans winning a majority of places on the ticket and the amendments carrying by a majority of 470 on the average.

For the State Senate Taylor's majority over Cooper was 353 as officially declared; Davis, Republican, over Goddard, for Congress, 354 majority; Jewett, Republican, over Adkins, for the Legislature, 181; and McKelthan over Newton, Democrat, for clerk of the court 39 majority; Robinson, Democrat, won over Brooks, Republican, for sheriff by a majority of 148; and Gray, Democrat, over Jarrette, for register of deeds, 130 majority. Russ, Democrat, won over Lewis, for 141; fourth in the following vote: Knox, 918, Little 828, Stanley, 848. There were no serious contests in spite of the very close votes between the two tickets.

WILSON OFFICIAL RETURNS.

Majorities for All Amendments, Ranging from 52 to 186.

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 5.—Official returns from Wilson county give Senator Overman 582 majority; Congressman Claude Kitchen 570 majority; Democratic State ticket practically the same as the vote for Overman; some little scratching. The Democratic county ticket has 543 majority. The official returns on votes for constitutional amendments show the following majorities: First amendment 59; second 574; third 141; fourth 155; fifth 186; sixth 145; seventh (taxation) 52; eighth 162; ninth 158; tenth (school term) 154.

HIT HARD AT CUMBERLAND

All Amendments Defeated by Majorities Ranging From 1,500 to 1,600.

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 5.—The official vote canvassed by county election board shows an average majority of between 1,500 and 1,600 against the amendments. The tenth amendment is defeated in this county by 1,676, this being the biggest majority against the proposition. The smallest is 1,420, against the amendment striking out the term "Rebellion" from the constitution. Majority against the tax amendment. (Continued From Page Two.)

INVESTIGATION TO COMMENCE TODAY

Federal Grand Jury To Probe Arkansas Mining Trouble

TROOPS ARRIVE TODAY

Quiet Which Settled Over District When the President Ordered Troops to Go to Scene, Broken by Burning.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 5.—The apparent calm which fell upon the Hartford Valley coal mining regions when news was received that President Wilson had ordered Federal troops into that section to preserve order was broken today when reports spread throughout the valley that another building of the Bachs-Dennan properties at Prairie Creek had been burned. The burning was first said to be the act of some boys who had been playing about the empty structure.

While this was the only disturbance in the mining vicinity, Federal authorities in this city were fully engaged getting everything in readiness for the meeting of the grand jury tomorrow.

Latest reports received tonight stated that the special trains bringing the four troops of cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Ill., would not reach Fort Smith before late tomorrow morning.

It was generally reported today that S. E. Bachs, as receiver for the Bachs-Dennan interests would attempt to operate the mines under the protection of the troops.

Scores of residents of Hartford Valley came into Fort Smith tonight to be on hand for the opening of the United States court in the morning. A majority of the witnesses subpoenaed already are on hand.

LINER TO BOSTON

German Kronprinzessin Cecilie Which Caused Much Trouble to Lay Up.

Bar Harbor, Me., Nov. 5.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie, which has been interned here for three months, will leave at 4 a. m. tomorrow for Boston to remain pending the determination of civil suits against her owners in the federal courts.

The early hour of the start was arranged so that most of the 200 mile trip along the coast might be made in daylight.

The ship will leave the harbor with guarantees from the allied powers at war with Germany that she will not be molested.

Two destroyers of the United States navy, the Terry and Lamson, will act as convoy for the German steamer.

The Kronprinzessin Cecilie came into this port August 4 after she had gone more than half way across the Atlantic on a voyage from New York. On account of the opening of hostilities her officers turned her about and made a run for a neutral port. She carried many passengers and a valuable cargo of gold. It was the failure to deliver the latter at its destination that led to the libelling of the ship in civil suits in the federal court.

INVESTIGATION IS BEGUN

Into the Sinking of British Hospital Ship Which Struck Mine.

London, Nov. 5.—The hospital ship Rohilla, wrecked recently off the Yorkshire coast with many casualties, was struck by a mine and so badly injured that her captain was forced to run her on the rocks to escape sinking at sea.

Captain Wilson of the Rohilla gave this testimony at an inquest today.

It was the first hint that the hospital ship had struck a mine. It had been under the vessel merely got off her course and piled on the rocks.

Capt. Wilson said that he had not run the vessel ashore she would have sunk with the loss of all hands on board.

PROGRESS CONTINUES

According to Petrograd Official Statement Issued Yesterday.

Petrograd, Nov. 5.—The following official communication has been issued from Russian general headquarters:

"We continue to progress on the East Prussian front. The Germans are falling back along the whole front, only keeping a fortified position in the region of Warfholow.

"On the left bank of the Vistula the Russian army is continuing its vigorous offensive, pursuing the retreating enemy. The crossing of the Sanhur Russian troops continue with success. The Austrians are retreating. In the Black Sea region no change is reported."

FULL SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN IN TEN STATES

Nevada and Montana Join the Ranks Tuesday

Partial Suffrage Granted to Them in Twenty-Two States—Leaders Are Happy as Result of Tuesday's Vote.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Women now have full suffrage in ten States according to latest returns tonight, which apparently gave the franchise to women in Nevada and Montana. Suffrage amendments were leading by 1,317 in Montana and by 3,600 in Nevada.

In addition women have the right to vote for certain officers in 23 other States. In Illinois they may vote for all statutory offices, including presidential electors.

The ten women suffrage States, with the time of granting the franchise are: Wyoming, 1890; Colorado, 1893; Utah, 1895; Washington, 1910; California, 1912; Arizona, 1913; Kansas, 1912; Oregon, 1912; Nevada, 1914; Montana, 1914.

The 22 States allowing partial suffrage to women are: Michigan, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, (defeated equal suffrage Tuesday), New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Ohio, South Dakota, Vermont and Wisconsin.

Late returns bear out early indications that full suffrage amendments were defeated Tuesday in Ohio, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Officers of the National Woman Suffrage Association tonight declared woman voters were instrumental Tuesday in passing the amendments in California that drive out pugilism and segregated vice quarters.

Women aided materially, suffrage leaders claimed, in voting prohibition for Washington, Oregon and Colorado.

the Russian army in the Caucasus was made public here tonight:

"Concerning the operations during the last 24 hours there is nothing important to report.

"Our troops are vigorously clearing the enemy's territory which is occupied by small bands, the remnant of the Turkish ganguard defeated during the last few days.

"One of our columns has defeated the Turks near Besyan, routing them and capturing the town. The Turks in the light threw away their arms and scattered to the villages in the neighborhood.

"Our cavalry attacked to the east of Dyaden three Kurd regiments supported by infantry and threw them back."

CABLE IS REOPENED.

Pacific Line Cut by Germans is Repaired and Business is Resumed.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 5.—The Pacific cable connecting Canada with Australia was reopened today.

The cable was put out of business September 2, when the German cruiser Nurnburg sailed up to Fanning Island flying a French flag and accompanied by a collier.

Two cutters headed by German sailors and marines, intow of a launch, landed, and with bayonets fixed, seized the cable headquarters.

KEEP DOWN THE COST.

Austria and Hungary Both Fighting the Advance in Cost of Living.

Venice, via Paris, Nov. 5.—Both the Austrian and Hungarian governments are making desperate efforts to prevent further increases in food prices.

The Austrian ministry recently directed that after December 1 bread shall contain not more than 70 per cent of wheat or rye meal, the remainder to consist of barley, maize or potato meal. The decree prohibits exchanging stale white bread at the bakeries or returning bread.

To prevent the wasting of flour, the government has ordered mills to restrict the quantity of the finest grades, because the milling of it produces a smaller percentage of flour than coarser grades.

In Hungary the government's efforts to restrain inflated proprietors who are said to be demanding exorbitant prices for grain, have failed. The ministry has warned farmers that steps will be taken to import flour from America.

Meanwhile military authorities have requisitioned large quantities of flour, paying considerably below the market prices for it. As a consequence, the grain trade of Hungary is at a complete standstill.

As the military has to have more flour soon, the situation is becoming acute.

AN EXCELLENT COMPANY.

Splendid Presentation of John Fox's Mountain Play Yesterday.

It is seldom that Wilmington theatre goers have the opportunity of seeing a play presented by a more excellent company than appeared at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and evening in Eugene Walter's mountain melodrama, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," based on John Fox's well known book of the same name.

Only fair sized audiences saw the play and that the company did so well under the circumstances is another tribute to their ability.

To single out names in such a cast is hardly proper but Miss Eleanor Montell as "June" is perhaps worthy of the highest praise. Her delineation of character leaves nothing to be desired. She has all the qualities of a good actress and uses them to excellent advantage.

Edwin Walters as "John Hale," the engineer at the gap, plays his part with real excellence and portrays a type of man that possesses real virility as well as deep sentiment. Thomas V. Morrison as "Dave Tolliver," June's father, has a difficult role and one that requires ability of a rare kind to carry out properly and at the same time appeal to the audience. That he is able to correctly represent this character and at the same time win the esteem of the audience is indeed striking.

Of course we can't leave out John P. Palmer as "Uncle Billy" and Miss Beatrice Litton as "Ole Hun," and the others ought to be mentioned, too, but our time is up, and we rise simply to say that the company presenting this play of real human interest to all lovers of the mountain country deserve all the patronage that they have been receiving in their tour through the South.

TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY PROGRAMME COMPLETE

Brimful of Really Important and Profitable Features

Annual Meeting of the Teachers of the State to be Held at Charlotte Thanksgiving Week—Prof. Claxton to Speak.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—The complete programme for the 31st annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly in Charlotte November 25—Thanksgiving week—is being mailed out to teachers and others in every part of the State and it is said that the indications are for probably the largest attendance in the history of the Assembly.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble, of Chapel Hill, is president, and Miss Mary O. Graham, of Charlotte, is vice president.

The heads of the different departments are: association of kindergarten teachers, Miss Hattie M. Scott, Asheville; Primary Teachers, Miss Hattie Parrott, Winston; Grammar Grade teachers and Principals, Mrs. Hattie E. Fennell, Wilmington; Association of County Superintendents, Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Raleigh; City Superintendents, R. H. Latham, Winston-Salem; Association of Music Teachers, Gustav Hagedorn, Raleigh; Association of High School Teachers and Principals, A. Vermont, Smithfield.

The teachers are to be welcomed to Charlotte Wednesday evening, November 25, by Mayor Chas. A. Bland on behalf of the city and Greater Charlotte Club, and the response will be by Supt. H. V. Craven, of Newbern. There will also be at this time address by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, of Frankford, Ky., the apostle of "Moonlight Schools," and head of the Kentucky Illiteracy commission, and by United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton.

The annual address of Prof. M. C. S. Noble, president, will be delivered on Thursday evening. Each of the departments of the Assembly has a specially prepared programme for each day and it is declared that there has never been an Assembly programme quite so brim full of really important and profitable features.

Furthermore, Charlotte is preparing for especially hospitable attentions to the throngs of visitors who will gather for the session. There will be a big reception Thursday night in Seiwyn hotel by the Charlotte Woman's Club.

The Raleigh Division of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will send to the next annual State convention at High Point, beginning Friday of this week, a special invitation to come to Raleigh for the 1915 convention. Raleigh representatives to the High Point convention are Mrs. G. A. Strickland, Mrs. J. E. Stevick, Mrs. Ella Harris and Mrs. E. G. Horton.

A deed just recorded here transfers from Wake Forest College to the Wake Forest Baptist church a lot 132x140 feet, the property to revert to the college when it ceases to be used for church purposes. A conspicuous corner on the college campus is now being completed.

Mr. Charles Bretsch Dead.

Mr. Charles Bretsch, who for a number of years ran the Bretsch bakery here and held a large interest in the plant until his death, passed away last evening after a protracted illness and the funeral will be held Friday afternoon from the Roman Catholic church of the Sacred Heart. He was a son of the late Chas. M. Bretsch, who the Southport will have given the son was 29 years old and was a highly esteemed young man.

TO HAVE WATER SYSTEM.

Southport Gives Contract for Installation to McCrory Co.

Mr. Harry Haley, editor of the Southport News, was in the city last evening and in conversation with a Star man said that Southport has just given the contract for the installation of a sewerage and water system to the McCrory Company, of Atlanta, Ga., the entire cost to be $4,000. He said that it is expected that work will begin within 30 days and that it will be pushed to rapid completion. This is but another evidence of the progressive spirit of the people of the metropolis of Brunswick.

ment is 1,430. Only 151 votes were cast for the school amendment in a total vote of 2,070.

The canvassing of the State vote has not been concluded. The official count brings the majority of John Henry Currie, Democrat, over A. L. McCaskill, Independent, down to 133. The average Democratic majority for the county ticket is 385, all Democratic candidates being elected over the independent ticket.

GUDGER ADMITS DEFEAT

James J. Britt, of Asheville, Elected From Tenth District.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 5.—Congressman Gudger's campaign manager today formally conceded the election of J. J. Britt, Republican candidate for Congress, from this, the Tenth district. The election of Mr. Britt breaks the solid Democratic delegation from this State to Congress. Mr. Britt's majority will range around 700.

HOOD'S MAJORITY 2,313.

Light on Account of Apathy and Local Disturbances.

(Special Star Telegram.) Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 5.—Hon. Geo. E. Hood, of Wayne county, has been elected representative of the Third congressional district in the Sixty-fourth Congress by a majority of 2,313 over B. H. Crumpler, of Sampson county, his Republican opponent, according to official returns.

Following are the official votes from the various counties: Wayne, Hood 1,820; Crumpler 1,201. Sampson, Hood 1,915; Crumpler 2,507. Craven, Hood 848; Crumpler 31. Onslow, Hood 748; Crumpler 490. Duplin, Hood 1,414; Crumpler 1,150. Mr. Hood's official majority in Funder was 539, Famlico 385, Carteret 624. Crumpler's vote was not reported in these counties. The reduced majority in this district was caused by a light vote and local troubles in Duplin, Wayne and Sampson counties.

WAKE AGAINST AMENDMENTS.

GREAT OPPORTUNITIES OPEN FOR DEVELOPMENT

Of Miscellaneous Factories in North Carolina

Summary of Conditions Made Public by Commissioner of Labor and Printing—Cotton and Seed Prices —Internal Revenue.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—That class of factories in North Carolina not included in the reports on cotton, woolen, silk and knitting mills and furniture factories number 755, according to the summary on "Miscellaneous Factories" just made public by Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L.
Shipman for his forthcoming annual report. The aggregate capital reported by 439 of these miscellaneous factories is $58,811,410 and the estimated value of 649 of the plants is reported to be $30,738,000. The output of 649 of these factories is $97,062,107, and pay roll for 653 factories reporting as to this item aggregates $15,661,563.
The average day's work for all the factories figures out ten hours and five minutes. Some advance in wages the past year is reported from 280 of the factories and some decrease is reported from only six. Reports from 705 of the factories show 38,655 persons employed, including 1,933 children. Only 5,558 of these employed are females.
The preamble to the report declares that the reports show steady advance with normal demands for products. It is declared that the data in the reports emphasize great opportunity open in the State for development, especially for establishing plants for the utilization of small articles from now waste material created by the present manufactories of large articles of commerce that now predominate. Also, the commissioner declares that the same condition prevails in the truck and farming industries where there is great need for the canning of food stuffs that are now sold at great sacrifice or allowed to go to waste in the fields at the last of the season for each product.

Cotton and Seed Prices.
The division of markets of the North Carolina Experiment Station here, this week, added the following to the prices of cotton on the principal markets in the various sections of the State to its weekly quotations of prices for cotton seed. In the south central section, it is quoted as paying $ 1-4 to $ 2-3 cents for cotton and $14 to $16 per ton for cotton seed; Fayetteville, in the southeastern territory $ 2-4
to 7 cents for cotton and $15 to $25
per ton for cotton seed; Raleigh, in the north central section, $ 1-2 to $ 3-4 for cotton and $15 for cotton seed;
Charlotte, in the south central section, $ 1-4 to $ 2-3 for cotton and $13 to $16 per ton for cotton seed. The quotations for the southeastern section follow: Clarksville, cotton, $ 1-3 to 7; seed, $16
to $17.
Fayetteville, cotton, $ 1-4 to 7; seed, $15 to $16.
Goldboro, cotton, $ 1-2; seed, $14.
Kinston, cotton, $ 1-2 to 7; seed, $14
to $15.
Lumberton, cotton $ 1-2 to 6-5; seed, $14 to $15.

Internal Revenue Increased.
Internal revenue collections for this district during October aggregated $513,465, compared with $479,958 during September, a decided gain in spite of the European war conditions.
Mayor Johnson says that within a week Raleigh's greatly enlarged and completely remodeled water plant, now municipally owned, will be complete and that the equipment is working finely and the people need not have the least hesitancy about using the water for any and all purposes. The immense new filters will be in full service within a few days.

Charters Issued.
A charter was issued today for the Fidelity Cotton Warehouse Company, of Fayetteville, capital $100,000 authorized and $25,000 subscribed by R. M.
Hart, R. H. Howell and Charles G. Rose for storing cotton and issuing negotiable certificates.
There is also a notice of dissolution for the Bank of Greenville, R. L. Davis being president and James L. Little cashier. It is a dissolution by mutual consent of the stockholders, the business of the bank having been merged with another Greenville bank.

COLLEGE STUDENT ELECTED TO THE STATE SENATE.
Walter Harrison Fisher, of Sampson, a senior at Wake Forest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Wake Forest, N. C., Nov. 4.—Walter Harrison Fisher, Republican, who was elected State Senator from the 14th district in the general election Tuesday, is at present in school at Wake Forest College, a member of the senior class.
Mr. Fisher came here four years ago from Roseboro, Sampson county. Since entering Wake Forest College he has been known as a man of upright character, possessing the qualities of a gentleman. He is devoted to the institution, as is shown by his deep interest in the different phases of the college activities. He took the summer work of Law here last summer and obtained his license to practice law at the August examination.

A. C. L. HEARING IN GOLDSBORO SATURDAY
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—The mission will be in Goldsboro Saturday at 2 o'clock to give a hearing in the matter of the petition of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company to be permitted to take off shoe-fly trains 90 and 91 between Goldsboro and Wilmington.

The Coast Line officials are insisting on the commission acting on their petition and citizens at a number of points served are demanding a hearing in opposition.
The opposition is principally from Goldsboro, Magnolia, Warsaw and Mount Olive.

HIGHWAYMAN HOLDS UP AN ELECTION OFFICIAL

Masked Bandit Takes Returns
in a Cumberland Precinct

Democratic Registrar in Bullard's Mill Forced to Surrender Returns at Point of Pistol—Saved Tally Sheet for Board.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 5.—While on his way to his home in Bullard's Mill precinct, Beaver Dam township, Tuesday night, with the election returns from Tuesday's election, Fennell R.
Bryant, Democratic registrar in that precinct, was held up at the point of a pistol by a masked man and the official returns taken from him.
Bryant had the original tally sheet in his pocket and the highwayman failed to get this; so this tally sheet was accepted by the county canvassing board when it met here today as the returns from Bullard's Mill. The sheets showed a majority of 22 for the Independent ticket.
Bryant was going home with a friend in the latter's buggy and the two were crossing a swamp when the figure of a man whose face was masked with jute bagging, having eye-holes cut in it, appeared in their way and ordered them to throw up their hands. Bryant had no idea who the man was. This is the story as it reached here today.
There had been considerable friction between Democrats and Republicans in the precinct all day, developing at times into personal encounters.

METHODISTS AT WASHINGTON

North Carolina Conference November 15th—400 Expected—Washington News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Washington, N. C., Nov. 5.—The Eastern North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene in this city on November 15th, and about 400 ministers are expected to attend.

Between 40,000 and 50,000 pounds of tobacco was sold on the floors of the Washington and Beaufort warehouses today, and the average price received by the farmers was over 15 cents a pound. The average prices obtained during all the sales of last week was $16.35 per hundred, and this satisfactory price included scraps.

Mr. Jarvis Cutler, of Jessama, N. C., one of the section's enterprising farmers and popular citizens, met with the misfortune to lose his home by fire yesterday afternoon. Not only was the building entirely consumed, but all of the household and kitchen furniture as well. As to how it originated has not as yet been ascertained.

Congressman John H. Small, who on yesterday was elected for the ninth time as member of Congress from this district, in speaking of the result last night in a newspaper man, said:
"I am intensely appreciative for my re-election to the 64th Congress, and I shall consider the result as a new commission to render the highest service in my power to the people of this district, the State and the country. I shall strive to see unceasingly and diligently. Under the leadership of President Wilson, I shall endeavor in co-operation with my colleagues in the House of Representatives to supplement and extend the constructive achievements of this administration."

NEW ENGLAND BANKERS WILL RESPOND TO CALL.

Harding is Much Pleased With Success of His Trip.
Washington, Nov. 4.—Success of the plan for raising a $135,000,000 loan fund to aid cotton producers seemed assured today. W. P. G. Harding, member of the Federal Reserve Board, in active charge of the plan, returned today from Boston, confident that New England bankers will respond to the request for subscriptions. Mr. Harding says telegrams from many cities indicate the success of the plan.

He declared Chicago had raised about $10,000,000; Cleveland and Cincinnati about $2,000,000; San Francisco is actively at work and Washington and Louisville have pledged their full quota.

The prompt action of the clearing houses and banks in these and other cities led Mr. Harding to feel confident that the prospects are bright for the success of the fund. He explained today that New England bankers expect to aid cotton manufacturers in that section, but do not on the other hand wish to see cotton falling this year at unusually low prices with a short crop as a sequence of such prices next year.
This, in view of many New England bankers would only mean that next year's cotton would go to abnormally higher prices and the manufacturers would gain nothing. They are said to prefer a stable reason and for this reason are willing to contribute to the fund. Boston may be asked for nearly $10,000,000 for the fund.

MARION BUTLER NOW TO SOUTHERN FARMERS' RESCUE
Member of Committee to Urge Congress to Aid Cotton Growers.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—Marion Butler has been appointed a member of a committee selected by the Washington Board of Trade to urge Congress to enact legislation that will help the Southern farmers. Everybody else has tried his hand; we will now see what the former senator can do.

Representative Robert N. Page is the first North Carolina Congressman to return to Washington. Mr. Page returned today and will remain here until Congress meets in December.

AMERICAN LEAGUERS DECLARE FOR PEACE

Hatchet for Good.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Club owners of the American League here today put themselves on record for peace, but brought no nearer an end the baseball war. Rumors that overtures had been made to the Federals were denied. The only discussion of the Federal situation lasted but half an hour. In that time every one of the eight clubs' representatives declared for peace, but it was the general opinion that peace can be reached only by absorption of the Federal League, not through its recognition.

"There is no room for a third league," they agreed, and the elimination of competitive clubs in Chicago, St. Louis and Brooklyn must be included in any true terms.
Except that some of the clubs had as many as 40 men on their pay rolls and could not dispose of them because of fear of the Federal League there was no reason found to warrant recognition of the Federals, the club owners said. Plans for distribution of extra players among the minor leagues in a way to assure their not being signed by the Federals, will be left to President Johnson and minor league owners at the Omaha meeting.

Manager Mack, of the Philadelphia Club, refused to make a formal charge against Manager Jennings, of Detroit, accused of giving out the news of walvers being asked on "Plunk, Bender and Coombs. Mack said he had buried the hatchet. The charge that Manager Jennings, of Washington, had informed the Boston Braves of the Athletics' "weakness" contributing to a defeat of his own colleagues, was not taken seriously.

APPLY SULPHUR LIKE A COLD CREAM WHEN SKIN BREAKS OUT SAYS SULPHUR WILL END ITCHING ECZEMA

In the treatment of the various forms of disfiguring, itching and burning inflammatory affections of the skin, Eczema, such as Acne, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, there is nothing known that cannot cure, yet in every instance it intake the place of bold-sulphur cream, It effects such prompt relief, even includes the irritation and heals the inflamed, raw skin right up and it is often never-ending source of amazement to physicians.
For years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of any good pharmacist an ounce of bold-sulfur eruptions by reason of its prompt cooling, parasite-destroying properties upon the abrasion like an ordinary cold bold-sulphur is not only parasiticide, but antipruritic and antiseptic, therefore prompt relief afforded is very welcome.

Mother's Friend Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embroilment in our "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have found the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.
It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women.
"Mother's Friend" is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires.
You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. Get a bottle to-day and then write for our little book,

THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1914.

Have some nerve.

Thank goodness that it wasn't worse
last Tuesday.

After Mayeys passes eighteen she ceases celebrating her birthdays.

Increased demand for something to eat makes food crops a sure agricultural proposition.

Let us all sit together in Wilmington and bury the hatchet and inter the hammer.

For one thing, we are thankful for not being eligible to the temporary Presidency of Mexico.

So far as the results of Tuesday's election are concerned, Bull Mooseism has to share in the alarm.

Pennsylvania is wedded to her idol.
The Keystone State makes it plain that she is as reactionary as Ephraim.

A Wilmington dairy is shipping milk to customers in the country instead of the country's shipping milk to it.

The difference between most of us and one of Krupp's "Busy Berthas" is that we don't make a bit of noise when we are fired.

We get this significant laconic from the Washington Post: "The hat in the ring is worn to a frazzle." All seems to be lost save the ring.

In the election on Tuesday two more States became annexed by the woman suffrage cause. Was it because of women's winning ways?

A pretentious burg advertises itself as
"The South's Best Town," but why should we worry so long as Wilmington is "the very best."

It seems that the Sick Man will have to take his medicine in spite of his efforts to apologise to those who are nursing a grievance against him.

That will be a pifflesque conclave of the paragraphs at Charlotte on the 26th of November, a new date for the celebration of Gull Fykes' Day.

Dear mates, one of the saddest of naval calamities last Tuesday was that the statesmanship of quite a number of aspiring individuals ran on a mine planted by the floating vote.

The Sick Man of Europe seems to persist in having something wrong with him. He never lets well enough alone, but one of the reasons is that he has too many European doctors.

The way New York went Tuesday shows that Democrats can't fight among themselves and win from opponents who quit fighting each other and get together on a new offensive and defensive line.

Have we realized what an asset Wilmington has in her climate? Minimum temperature for 24 hours 54, maximum 77, mean 66—that is the official record for yesterday, the fifth day of November. Regular May weather.

A man's name may be mud, but it isn't so with Congressman Sidney E.
Mudd, of Maryland. He gets elected every time he runs. He was re-elected last Tuesday, and is the only Republican representative elected in that State.

After what's happened, if we were running for a Presidential third term we'd wade up to the front and howl to the inevitable before ultimate fossilization completely checked the flexibility of our spinal column in accompaniment with the ordinary process of ossi-fication.

Professor David G. Usher predicts that "the United States will have to fight the victor in the European war for the possession of the Panama Canal and for sovereignty in South America." Inasmuch as it will take the victor about fifty years to recover from the victory, it will give them plenty of time to decide to be one of our very best friends.

CONGRESSMAN GUDGER'S DEFEAT.

The only real jolt received by the North Carolina Democracy in last Tuesday's election, was the defeat of Representative Gudger by a Republican in the Tenth, or Asheville, district.
The Republican Congressman-elect is the Hon. J. J. Britt, an Asheville lawyer, formerly engaged in educational work and who served as third assistant Postmaster General at Washington under President Taft's administration.

What happened to Gudger? Democratic leaders are endeavoring to account for his defeat. Some are surprised at it, but it must be remembered that the Tenth district never was reliably Democratic. It is surprising, however, that in a district where the Republicans have been demoralized by divisions and practically disorganized, such a strong Democrat as Mr. Gudger should be turned down while there is a Democratic administration at Washington.

It shows that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is quite likely that hundreds of Democrats remained away from the polls under the idea that Mr. Gudger would be elected anyhow. Apathy in an off year may have been the cause, but the Hon. M. L.
Shipman, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, whose home is at Hendersonville, in Mr. Gudger's district, has returned to Raleigh with several reasons why Mr. Britt has beaten a Wilson Democrat.

Mr. Shipman, who has been a Democratic politician in the Tenth district for many years, explains it in this way:
"We expected a heavy reduction in the unprecedented Democratic majority of two years ago," he went on to say, "but were not prepared for a reverse such as the reports indicate."

However, the Democrats of that district have never permitted a Republican to represent them twice in succession and two years hence it will again take its place in the Democratic column. Mr. Gudger's defeat and base misrepresentations concerning the Wilson administration, generally, are the main causes which have contributed largely to the slump. "Business depression was worked overtime and pitiful stories were poured into the ears of the unemployed around manufacturing centers and in logging camps. The European war, with all attendant horrors were laid at the door of President Wilson and dire predictions made of fearful consequences to this country in the event the Democrats retained control of Congress at this time. Hundreds of Democrats evidently failed to vote at all and have only themselves to blame for the loss of the district. Mr.
Gudger made a splendid fight and deserved a better fate."

No doubt Mr. Shipman has it doped out about right. Unfortunately at a time like this men are easily misled by not only false but utterly absurd statements made on the stump by designing politicians. Mr. Britt's election to Congress will in no wise help the Tenth district. He will oppose the Wilson administration, whereas, the people of the Tenth had everything to gain and nothing to lose by returning Mr. Gudger as a backer of the only President in nearly a quarter of a century who has done almost superhuman work to restore the government to the people.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S NEW COTTON ACREAGE LAW.

At its recent session the South Carolina General Assembly passed two laws affecting the cotton crisis. One was a referendum act authorizing the State to issue $25,000,000 in State bonds for the purpose of buying the cotton crop or loaning money on the same.
That act was overwhelmingly defeated at the election held last Tuesday.
In Charleston only nine votes were cast for its ratification by the people.
Evidently such a measure struck the people of South Carolina like it did everywhere outside the State—as a piece of absurdity which reflects on the wisdom of the General Assembly which submitted it to the people.

However, the South Carolina Legislature passed another law—one inhibiting the planting of more than one-third of this year's cotton acreage in cotton next season. That act is an assumption on the part of the State that it can dictate to a landowner how much of anything he can plant—cotton in this instance. That act stands among the statutes of the State.
It has met with ridicule and seriousness by both the people and the press.
However, it is the law till the Supreme court of the State or nation says it is unconstitutional, and the Charleston News and Courier so regards it in an editorial urging that it is the duty of the people of the State to respect
it. That paper's view of it is as follows:

"The Newberry Herald and News very probably voices the opinion of a large number of people when it says, speaking of the Legislature's work, that 'the reduction of the acreage (in cotton) to one-third of the arable land that may be cultivated will amount to nothing.'"

"We are not so sure of that. The News and Courier opposed any such legislation because it believed 'it to be wrong in principle and harmful in policy; but now that it has been enacted every effort ought to be put forth to enforce it uniformly and with all possible strictness until it is repealed or declared unconstitutional by the courts. No cotton planter has the right to assume that it is going to be repealed by the regular session of the General Assembly which will meet in January. No cotton planter is entitled to disregard its provisions because he personally thinks it unwise, or because he is advised that it will probably not be upheld if a test is ever made of its constitutionality. The law is there and so long as it is there it is the duty of every citizen to respect it and obey it. It may be a bad law, but no private individual is within his rights if he ignores it because he holds such an opinion."

"One of the things about such legislation which makes it particularly obnoxious as a practical matter is that it may so easily be abused by persons with malice which they wish to vent against those whom they hate or of whom they are jealous or envious. No man can be made the target for such spite, however, who plants only the amount of cotton which the law gives him the right to plant. The Legislature has said by its act that South Carolinians are no longer free to conduct their own private affairs in their own way. We do not think they had any right to say this, but until the courts have declared otherwise the act stands, and the only way in which gross injustices can be prevented as a result of its passage is for the farmers throughout the State to get within its mandate. Those who do not do this voluntarily should be made to do it."

"Perhaps an active organization will have to be formed in each county to assist in seeing that this is accomplished."

As a matter of course, no such law will stand the slightest showing in any court in the country, but the serious attempt of the State to interfere with the personal rights and privileges of the citizens shows how far the State will lend itself to inquisitorial, proscriptive and tyrannical measures. Of course it would be the mildest of tyrannies to attempt by law to keep farmers from ruining themselves—a rather benevolent form of tyranny—but who can have any patience with even that mild kind of usurpation? It would be really funny, if it did not indicate the grave fact that law bodies have gotten to the point where they would not hesitate to make laws which even Russia would not dare to attempt to enforce in the days of its most autocratic power.

There is no telling how far some men would go in taking away individual liberty.

WILSON WON.

Republican papers claim that the election resulted in a victory for the opponents of the Wilson administration, but when the final result is figured out it will be a remarkable revelation that the Democrats will have a good working majority in both houses of Congress. We say it is remarkable, owing to all the conditions entering into this off year election.

The long period required to pass a Democratic tariff with the consequent disturbance of business, together with the outbreak of war in Europe, endangered Democratic success at this time, and the surprise is that the Democrats will have a majority of 23 in the House and ten in the Senate.

Much of the legislation passed by Congress was considered radical by thousands of Americans, but in spite of that fact the next Congress will be safely Democratic.

In May one Democratic Senator was elected and last Tuesday 16 Senators were elected by the people, scoring 17 Democratic Senators to 12 Republicans, with 4 doubtful. This shows that the people in the main have endorsed the administration.

The general result can not be measured by the local victories for the Republicans. The issues were more national than local, and in some instances they were both. There was a house cleaning in New York, and prohibition, woman suffrage and other local questions figured in at least 20 States.

With conditions such as are here, there is no cause for surprise at the rather remarkable gains made by the Republicans. They were only retaking strongholds that were wrested from them by Democrats under abnormal conditions which have prevailed for several years.

TOURIST HOTEL FOR CHARLESTON

Charleston has a $200,000 tourist proposition on hand. In accordance with the proposition of Mr. C. B.
Rulet the citizens of Charleston have subscribed $20,000 to the enterprise.
Mr. Rulet and associates recently proposed to put up a modern theatre and tourist hotel of 150 rooms, and their requirement of Charleston was the subscription of $20,000 of preferred stock.

Since Charleston people had an easy time in raising up $20,000, the theatre and hotel promoters have come forward with an additional proposition to make the hotel an establishment of 250 rooms. At a meeting of citizens they expressed themselves as favorable to the larger proposition, but were unwilling to consider any change of the former conditions or to approach subscribers upon any new proposition till they are in a position to assure investors that such new proposition has been fully and satisfactorily financed.

That is business on the part of the Charlestonians. They want to be sure they are right before they go ahead.
Anyhow, they endorsed the first proposition for a theatre and tourist hotel, and the subscription committee reported that it had secured more than $20,- 000 to the capital stock.

This shows that Charleston is in earnest, and it is up to the promoters of the enterprise to comply with their proposition or give Charleston assurances concerning the much greater proposition. Everybody is agreed that our South Atlantic climate is ideal for winter tourist business, and suitable hotels only need to be built in order to prove that they will attract thousands of visitors during our charming South Atlantic winters.

It seems now that all danger of a ja-had is passed. Of course, North Carolinians know what a jahad is, but for the benefit of South Carolinians it should be stated that it is what the Mohammedans call a "Holy war." The possibility of having a jahad shows that it could be a great deal worse than it is.

The Boys' Corn Clubs have demonstrated that even a boy can make from $0 to 100 bushels of corn per acre and do it at one half as much cost as is required to make a bale of cotton. If a boy can do that and a man can't, how many men would you swap for a worthwhile boy?

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Observer is frank to admit that it underestimated Mr. Jake Newell's prospects as a vote getter in the Ninth district and that the result of the balloting was in excess of Democratic expectations. To much of it was due his personal popularity and it is doubted if the Republicans could have put up another man who would have given so good an account of himself in Mr.
Webb's district. He had at no time a chance of so much as seriously disturb the Representative from this district, but he has many personal friends among the Democrats who will feel at liberty to pass to him the compliments of the day on the spirit he displayed in the knowledge of a hopeless task. And yet Jake seems determined to give a jolt to this good will of his friends of both parties by raising the unfounded and useless cry of fraud.
—Charlotte Observer.

Although Major Stedman's official majorities are not yet known, it is safe to say that the figures printed elsewhere are within bounds. In fact there is every reason to believe they are too small and that when the official returns are all in his majority will be close to if not over 4,500.
This is the more remarkable from the fact that as every one knows the vote is always much lighter in an off year than in presidential years. This year Major Stedman's friends saw that his opposition was negligible and very little work was done by the rank and file for him, because it was not deemed necessary, yet his majority is remarkably under the circumstances. It is a high tribute to his worth and to his work in Congress. He remained at his post of duty practically all the long session, coming home only when sickness and death in his family required it. The voters appreciate his strict attention to duty. This is shown by his gratifying majority in yesterday's election. The Record congratulates him; so do the people of his district.—Greensboro Record.

Egypt reduces the acreage of the next cotton crop. But then, Egypt is not Texas, or Mississippi, or the Carolina American farmers are not in the habit of having a benevolent government, watchful lest they do themselves
an injury, tell them just how much cotton, or tobacco, or corn, or potatoes,
they may plant. Egyptian cotton, by the way, should not feel the competition of our own great crop. Having an uncommonly long staple, it is used for
special fabrics and brings a far higher
price than ours.—Philadelphia Record.

New England bankers are said not to be enthusiastic over the St. Louis bankers' plan to help relieve cotton in the South. The plan is largely the habit of having a benevolent government, watchful lest they do themselves
an injury, tell them just how much cotton, or tobacco, or corn, or potatoes,
they may plant. Egyptian cotton, by
the way, should not feel the competition of our own great crop. Having an uncommonly long staple, it is used for
special fabrics and brings a far higher
price than ours.—Philadelphia Record.

The card which appeared in your columns this morning signed "Belgium," accurately expresses my own feelings in the matter of contributions for the relief of suffering from the war in Europe, and I am moved thereby to say just a word by way of suggestion. It is this: That all persons desiring to aid in such relief, turn over their contributions for European relief to the Red Cross Society, without further designation of the specific sufferers. This society is international, with a world mission, is without bias, and he relied upon to dispense and distribute funds placed in its hands, where the immediate need is greatest with far more justice and wisdom than is possible to any domestic, however generous and humane their intentions.

I have followed this course myself in the case of all funds that have passed through my hands, and shall continue to do so. My personal sympathies at present are overwhelmingly with the sufferers in Belgium, of whom we are told there are about 7,000,000, homeless, clothesless, foodless, and in imminent danger of starvation unless immediate aid is given. But I am willing still to trust the Red Cross in all matters of distribution, even when my sympathies incline so strongly in one direction; because I feel sure that their grasp of the situation is far greater than mine can possibly be, and because I know that they are absolutely without prejudice or favor in their work of universal relief.

Again, I believe that by following this course this community as a whole can most efficiently and harmoniously work together for the common humanity of which we are all members, regardless of racial ties and national antecedents. I fear we have a long and heart breaking period of aid to the uttermost to all the suffering peoples in Europe still ahead of us, and it behooves us to forget everything in the way of our individual and private preferences and alliances if we are to render such aid always with the one desire that it may go where the call is most urgent and the need most dire.
Faithfully,
WM. H. MILTON.

A CARD.

To the Editor of The Star:

I will thank you to publish the following note. Inasmuch as I have been approached several times recently, regarding the affairs of the Independent Club, I wish to say that I am connected with the Postoffice and in no way associated with the Independent Club.
Thanking you in advance for the above courtesy.

Respectfully yours,

RETURNS TO CHARLOTTE.

Mr. B. N. Andrews to be Associated With His Father There.

Many Wilmington friends of Mr.
Burrette N. Andrews, one of the popular young auditors in the service of the Merchants National Bank, of this city, will regret to hear of his resignation from that institution to return to his former home in Charlotte where he will be associated with his father in business. Mr. Andrews resigned effective on November 1st and expects to leave tomorrow for his home.

Since coming to Wilmington about five years ago, he has made a host of new friends, and those who will regret to know of his departure, but will at the same time wish him every success in his new business. His father conducts one of the oldest and best known

OFFICIAL RETURNS OF TUESDAY'S ELECTIONMajority of Over 600 For The Amendments.Board of Canvassers of New Hanover Received Reports of Election Officers Yesterday—Godwin Led the State Ticket.

Official returns of the election Tuesday in New Hanover county were received yesterday by the board of canvassers which met in the grand jury room at the Court House at 11 A. M. and continued in session until after 4 o'clock. Immediately after 4 o'clock the board of canvassers met in the same room and the returns as declared by the canvassers were turned over to them. Little interest was manifested in the official returns as the results were already known and there were no contests to be decided.

Majorities for the constitutional amendments were larger than indicated by the first unofficial returns, ranging from 516 for the second amendment to 641 for the tenth. Congressman Hannibal L. Godwin led the State ticket with 810 votes and Mr. John A. Orrell, Democratic candidate for county treasurer, led the county ticket with 529 votes. C. E. Taylor, Esq., of Southport, Republican candidate for the State senate from the tenth district, led that ticket with 54 votes. Hon. Lee S. Overman, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, received 810 votes.

The vote was unusually light, being more than 1,000 less than the usual vote cast in this county. Two precincts in the county voted solidly Democratic and also voted solid for the constitutional amendments, these being Masonboro with 17 votes and Federal Point with 10 votes.

When the Board of elections met to receive the returns from the board of canvassers, Mr. William Struthers, Jr., the Republican member of that body, brought up the matter of the mix-up in the ballots Tuesday and stated that he was unwilling to go on record as consenting to receive the returns for the vote cast for the State senatorial candidates and for County Treasurer John A. Orrell, unless it was clearly designated what votes for the former candidates were cast with the ballots, reading from the 11th Senatorial district, and the votes cast with the ballots, reading from the 10th Senatorial district, and in the case of Mr. Orrell he held that it should be stated how many ballots were cast for him as auditor and how many were cast for him as county treasurer.

He said that he understood that there would be no contest made because of the errors in the returns, but that which were not corrected until 12 o'clock of election day, but he felt that the board of elections should not put itself in the position of protesting against returns that were not clearly in accordance with the facts.

Mr. C. W. Woodward, chairman of the board, stated that he did not understand that the duties of the Board of Elections, had anything to do with determining the validity of the election returns after they had been passed upon by the board of canvassers. He held that it was simply their duty to receive the returns, as officially declared by the board of canvassers. Mr. E. Finner, the Republican member of the board, stated that he could see no reason for making the division in counting the votes, as suggested by Mr. Struthers, unless a protest had been made before the returns had been made, that none had been made.

This ended the discussion and Mr. Woodward put the motion that the returns should be clearly designated, the proper certificates made to that end, which was adopted.

The board of canvassers organized at 11 o'clock with Mr. F. L. Landis as chairman and Mr. W. M. Hodges as secretary. Those present to make the returns for the different precincts of the county were as follows: First Ward, first precinct, Wm. McD. Evans; First Ward, second precinct, W. H. Howe; Second Ward, W. W. Hodges; Third Ward, A. G. Hankins; Fourth Ward, Geo. F. Howe; Fifth Ward, first precinct, R. A. Orrell; Fifth Ward, second precinct, T. G. Landis; Cape Fear, J. H. Johnston; Seven Mile Post, J. N. Shepard; Seagate, J. H. Hines; Delgado, B. P. Horne; Masonboro, Walter Horne; Federal Point, Hans A. Kure.

The members of the board of elections were present to assist in the organization of the board of canvassers. Jos. W. Little, Esq., chairman of the county Democratic Executive Committee, was also present and was of material assistance in giving information upon the election law bearing upon the manner in which the returns shall be made.

The Official Returns.
Following are the number of votes cast for and against the Constitutional amendments:

Amendment	For	Against
First	673	44
Second	607	97
Third	663	45
Fourth	688	43
Fifth	677	39
Sixth	647	44
Seventh	641	42
Eighth	660	46
Ninth	659	47
Tenth	654	43

Vote for Democratic Ticket.
Following is the official vote for each of the Democratic candidates for congressional, State, county and township officers:

Senator for the 10th district—W. B. Cooper, New Hanover county, 760.

IDEAL QUARTERS FOR SHOW

Workmen Busy Getting Rooms in Murchison Building Ready for Agricultural Fair—Exhibits.

Workmen have been busy for several days getting the rooms on the sixth floor of the Murchison building ready for the Corn Show and Agricultural Fair which will be held in connection with the Industrial and Fine Arts Exhibit by Sorosis next week, beginning Tuesday and continuing through Friday. The rooms are so arranged that there is a continuous passage from one room to the next, making the arrangement a high ideal for the fair. The visitor is impressed with the large amount of space available on this floor, it not being possible to get an adequate idea of the large area of the different floors, by standing on the outside.

Tables and shelves are being installed and under the supervision of the ladies of Sorosis are being draped so as to present a very attractive appearance. The exhibits will be classified, as already announced, by placing them in different rooms, thus keeping them apart. The doors leading from one room to another will make it possible to make a continuous circuit of the entire floor without turning back and going over any of the exhibits previously seen.

Indications are that there will be many exhibits from the surrounding counties. The committee in charge composed of Messrs. Z. W. Whitehead, J. P. Herring and L. B. Sager have received many letters from people of other counties who have stated that they only expected to send exhibits but that they also expected to come to Wilmington and visit the show.

Mr. J. P. Herring is acting as secretary for the committee and all exhibits that are sent by express or freight should be addressed to him at Wilmington. Telephones will be installed in the building today so that those who desire to get any information may do so by calling over the phone. There has been some person in the rooms for the last several days to supervise the arrangements that are being made and from now until the opening of the show Tuesday morning, there can always be found some one at the building who will be glad to receive any exhibits or to give any necessary information regarding the show.

One of the interesting exhibits of the show will be one by the State Department of Agriculture. This will show in a most interesting and instructive way how plants are affected by disease. An expert will be sent from the department who will have charge of the exhibit and who will be glad to give any information he can on this important subject. It is expected that this exhibit will prove of great value to the farmers, especially those interested in trucking.

Exhibit from Greenville, S. C.
One of the most interesting features of the show promises to be an exhibit of Carolina-made cotton products forwarded here from Greenville, S. C., by Mr. Geo. E. Brunson, Jr., editor of the Greenville Daily News, and a former Wilmingtonian whose interest in the old town has never lagged and whose sympathy and encouragement has always been with Wilmington and its people. When in Wilmington a short time ago he suggested that he could send a few products of the chain mill center at Greenville and the offer was promptly accepted by those in charge.

Mr. Brunson is sending to the show some sample pieces of cotton goods made by the Duncan mills, one of the fine goods mills there. Also there is a table cloth made by one of the mills operated by the Woodside interests at Greenville. There is also a lot of underwear made from cotton cloth spun in the Carolinas. These products are only a few of the great variety of goods made with Wilmington and its people. When in Wilmington a short time ago he suggested that he could send a few products of the chain mill center at Greenville and the offer was promptly accepted by those in charge.

Dosens of other products could have been sent by Mr. Brunson, all equally interesting as the ones mentioned, but he did not like to trespass. The exhibit is sent for the sole purpose of letting people see what can be and is being made of cotton here in our Carolinas. There has never been a more auspicious time for bringing out a lesson of this sort and the Greenville exhibit is certain to teach the lesson.

The exhibit sent by Mr. Brunson is a competitor for no prize or premium in any sense or form and it is sent at no expense to any one. It is merely a handsome "man's" presentation of the Brunson's interest in Wilmington and the Carolinas and is sure to prove a most valuable feature of the forthcoming industrial exhibit.

Wilmington township—Magistrate, G. W. Borenman, 843; W. R. Sargent, 596; G. C. King, 578; G. W. Smith, 575; Constable, J. H. Davis, 811.
Republican Vote.
The Republican vote for the Congressional and State offices, and the State Senate for the 10th district (there being no Republican nominees for county offices) is as follows:
United States Senator—A. A. White, Catawba county, 50.
Representative in the 64th Congress, sixth district—Robert W. Davis, Brunswick county, 47.
Members of the North Carolina corporation commission—Greer Parsons, 47.
Judge of the first judicial district—C. R. Fugh, 42.
Judge of the second district—Wheeler Martin, 44.
Judge of the fifth district—J. F. Duncan, 46.
Judge of the sixth district—G. E. Butler, 47.

Recorder Sets Trial for Next Wednesday at Request of Attorneys for the Defendant.

Recorder John J. Furlong yesterday continued the case against Mr. Joseph A. Price, secretary of the Independent Club, charged with aiding and abetting in maintaining a club room in violation of statute, until next Wednesday morning, this action being taken at the request of Mr. Price's attorneys, who stated that they were not ready for trial. His bond of $250 was continued at the same amount. There was a large crowd on hand yesterday morning to attend the trial, many of these being witnesses who were summoned to testify in the case.

It is rumored that other arrests may be made in connection with the same matter before the case comes up for trial next week. In addition to the large number of witnesses who have already been summoned others will be called at the trial, it is stated.

The attorneys for the defendant are W. F. Jones, Esq., Louis Goodman and Brooke G. Emple, Esq., while County Solicitor Geo. L. Peachau appears for the State.

Probable cause was found by the Recorder yesterday in cases against Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Simpson, both colored, charged with the larceny of several pieces of timber from Capt. J. B. Williams, and they will be tried at the next term of Superior Court. In default of bond in the sum of $50 each, the two negroes went to jail.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT
AT BRIGADE TONIGHT

The Weeks Company Will Present Program of Amusement.

Edwin R. Weeks, who appears at the Boys' Brigade tonight, is popularly known as "The Laugh maker," and unless all signs fail he will amply maintain his reputation in Wilmington. Mr. Weeks will be accompanied by Mrs. Weeks and Miss Olive Woodard. They gave an entertainment in Fayetteville last night and will arrive in the city this morning on the 10:15 train.

This will be the second number of this splendid course and if it approaches anywhere near the first in its power to please, the management may feel satisfied as well as the audience. It is predicted that the standing room will be occupied long before the entertainment begins.

While all the season tickets that were in the possession of the manager of the course have been sold, there are three reserved from two young men who were called out of the city which may be had by applying at Munson's today. The sale of reserved seats for the entertainment tonight opened at Munson's yesterday morning and will continue through today. The demand for tickets on account of the character of the entertainment is unusually large.

Speaking of Mr. Weeks and his entertainment, the Brooklyn Eagle says that he presents "a wit so spontaneous, original that he kept all in gales of laughter." And this is the reason for his coming to Wilmington. It is to be an opportunity for those who love to laugh and forget the cares of these disturbed times. It is prophesied that it will require much time to remove the wrinkles produced through the entertainment.

MEETING OF MOTHERS.

Interesting Meeting at Seagate School Today—Honor Roll.

There will be a meeting of the Mothers' Club of the Seagate school at the school house this afternoon at 2 o'clock. An interesting feature will be the presentation of the members of the seventh grade of a dramatization of the famous history story of "Pocahontas Saves the Life of John Smith." Prof. Washington of Charlotte will be present and will make a short address.

The honor roll of Seagate public school for the month of October is as follows:

Second Grade—Earle Thomas, Norman and Doris Canady.
Fourth Grade—Annie May Larkins, Virginia May Rogers.
Fifth Grade—Lula Augusta Allen, Sadie Virginia Butler.
Sixth Grade—Cattlet county super, Allen, Etta May Brooks.
Seventh Grade—Martha Rogers, Howard Bell.
Eighth Grade—Ewing Canady, Elma Canady, James Padrick.

SUCCESSOR HAS NOT ARRIVED.

Dr. Floyd Graves in Temporary Charge of Marine Hospital.

The successor to Dr. C. W. Stiles as professor in charge of the United States Marine Hospital in Wilmington has not yet arrived but it is expected that a representative of the United States Public Service will come the latter part of the week. Dr. Stiles and family left Saturday for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the winter. Dr. Stiles expects to return to Wilmington next June to resume his investigations in Wilmington and to take charge of the hospital.

Dr. Floyd Graves, of Monrovia, Ind., who has been assistant professor in the hospital until the arrival of the regular representative.

Now Undergoing Repairs at Government Yard Near Baltimore.

The revenue cutter Seminole is expected to return to Wilmington in about ten days to resume her winter coast patrol work after having been away all summer. The vessel is now being overhauled in the government ship yard near Baltimore. The vessel has been stationed along the coast of Maryland since her departure from Wilmington.

Capt. Godfrey L. Carden, for several years her popular commander, has been transferred to New York and will not return to Wilmington. There have also been a number of other changes made in her official staff.

"Made in Wilmington."

The electric sign just completed and erected for the Hotel Wilmington is one of the largest and finest in the city. Mr. Green, the owner of the hotel, in awarding the contract for the sign, decided to patronize home talent and the sign is the product of the Southern Sign Shops of this city. Messrs. W. R. Hodges & Co., did the wiring for the sign, assisted by Mr. Ham Adams.

NEGRO SUING FOR DAMAGES

C. H. Nixon Wants $2,000 for Alleged Injuries—Beach Property Case is Appended.

Superior Court for the trial of civil cases was engaged when it adjourned yesterday in trying the case of C. H. Nixon, colored, who is seeking to recover $2,000 from the Wilmington Ice & Storage Company for alleged injuries which he sustained when an ice wagon ran over him at Front and Orange streets two years ago. The plaintiff claims that he was badly injured in the chest and back and that he is, therefore, entitled to the amount named in the complaint. He is represented by A. G. Ricard, Esq., while Herbert McGlammy, Esq., appears for the defendant.

Notice was served by attorneys for the plaintiff in the case of Sarah Anne Merritt against some 50 or 60 Wrightsville Beach property owners, which was tried last week and resulted in a verdict for the defendants, that they would appeal to the Supreme Court. The plaintiff is given until January 1st to serve case on appeal and the defendants until February 25th to serve counter answer.

The plaintiff seeks to recover all of the beach north of the Oceanic Hotel, which she claims she inherited from her brother, Silas Stedden, who died intestate several years ago. Damages to the amount of $2,000 is also sought which is alleged to be due for rental of the property of which she claims to have been deprived of for the last three years. Practically all of last week was taken up with the case. After being out only a few hours the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

A mistrial resulted in the case of Laura Waddell against Ephraim Hiehon, a controversy over the title to a lot in Wilmington. C. Covington Company were given judgment in the sum of $299.50 in six cases brought against the Clyde Line Steamship Company.

A verdict for $75 was given in the case of Schless, Bear, Davis & Company against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company. An order was made yesterday in the case of F. O. Schroedinger against J. F. Woolvin, which resulted in a mistrial Wednesday, allowing the defendant to file an amended answer.

LIVERPOOL EXCHANGE TO OPEN.

Local Chamber of Commerce Officially Advised Yesterday.

News that a cable had been received in New York announcing that the Liverpool cotton exchange would be re-opened for restricted business in May-June contracts today was received yesterday by President M. J. Corbett, of the Chamber of Commerce here, and was considered by many as another step towards a general resumption of business. It is believed that the opening of the Liverpool market will be quickly followed by a resumption of the market in New York, but it is realized that there is still a great impediment to the free flow of trade in cotton to foreign countries on account of the uncertainty of the sea in these war-torn times and the extreme difficulty of getting safe and satisfactory insurance for cargoes across.

This feeling was shared in New York yesterday and the fear was expressed in spite of the opening of the exchanges, advancing ocean freight and war risks would continue to check export business.

WILMINGTONIANS TO ATTEND.

Pythians Will Have Rally at Acme Saturday Night—Addresses.

A number of Wilmington Pythians will attend the big rally to be held at Acme Saturday night when Grand Chancellor Baird of Charlotte will make an address. Among those who expect to attend are Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Supreme Master of Exchequer; Col. Walker Taylor, Past Grand Chancellor; Mr. J. W. Smith and others. They will return to the city on the midnight train.

Meares has written Vice-Chancellor Brown, of Illinois, to ascertain what date will be most convenient for him to visit Wilmington for the dedication of the Pythian Castle hall building on Princess street between Second and Third. It is planned to have the dedication some time between the 15th and 20th of this month, provided Mr. Brown can be here at that time. It is hoped to arrange it so that Mr. Brown can attend the district meeting which will be held in Chadbourn on the 20th.

MR. JOHN J. EIDEN DEAD.

Well Known Young Farmer Died at Home Near Wilmington Yesterday.

Many friends in Wilmington learned with deep regret yesterday of the death of Mr. John Joseph Eiden, a well known young farmer, who lived near Wilmington on the Castle Haynes road, which occurred yesterday morning after an illness of three days. He was 36 years old and is survived by his wife and three small children. The immediate cause of death was articular rheumatism.

The remains were brought to the home of Mr. John H. Miggel, No. 411 North Fifth street, a brother-in-law. The funeral arrangements will not be made until relatives in Illinois can be communicated with. Friends will sympathize tenderly with the bereaved family.

LIVERPOOL OPENS TODAY REDUCTION IN WHEAT PRICES ELECTION AFFECTS MARKET

New York Cotton Exchange Will be Opened Also as Soon as Few Details are Worked Out.

New York, Nov. 5.—A cable received today announced that the Liverpool cotton market would be re-opened for restricted business in May-June contracts tomorrow. The interest concentrated in January-February in Liverpool was hard to May-June today and the decision to re-open for liquidation of old business and new buying orders was considered another step toward a resumption of general business.

The conference committee of the New York exchange began a canvass of the trade here for signatures to the agreement necessary to the operation of the corporation syndicate plan for taking over old contracts on the basis of 3 cents for December and it is expected that a date for the re-opening of the local market will be fixed as soon as a court order is secured committing the sale at that price of contracts owned by a large firm which failed last July. This order is expected tomorrow.

Liverpool cables also reported the liquidation of 100,000 bales of January-February contracts there on Tuesday at 4.55 and offered 50,000 bales for ballot here in liquidation of old contracts, but local traders have decided not to ballot below 7.51 for December and are waiting to hear from Liverpool on that proposition before resuming international liquidation.

It was feared that advancing ocean freight and war risks would check export business, but local spot brokers reported no increase in offerings of spots from the South and generally steady prices. December contracts were quoted at 7.55 to 7.58 on the local curb.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Spot Quotations Remain the Same on Southern Market—Surprised. New Orleans, Nov. 5.—January contracts traded around 7.50 and middling stood unchanged at 7.16 in the local market for cotton today. Brokers were surprised at the sudden announcement from Liverpool that the market there would be opened tomorrow for restricted trading, and it was generally regarded that this action would hasten the resumption of business here, although no action toward this end was taken by the exchange officials. Total exports for the day were 25,612 bales, and were considered encouraging. Spot people said that offerings from the interior were none too free, and that little distressed cotton was coming to light. Spot cotton, quiet. Sales on the spot, 310 bales, to arrive 1,130.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, Nov. 5.—Cotton seed oil sold 16 to 30 points higher, early on active short covering and buying on the lard strength, but reacted under profit taking sales and lack of bull support, closing 3 to 17 points net higher. The market closed firm. Spot, 5.20; 5.25; November, 5.37; December, 5.32; January, 5.43; February, 5.58; March, 5.85; April, 5.70; May, 5.90; June, 5.95; July, 6.00. Total sales, 16,500.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET. Liverpool, Nov. 5.—Spot, fair business done; prices, unchanged. Sales, 12,100 bales, including 9,400 American, on the basis of 4.55 for middling. Imports, 700 bales; all American.

NAVAL STORES MARKET. Savannah, Nov. 5.—Turpentine, nominal, 45 1/2; no sales received. Shipments none, stocks 29,485. Rosin—Nominal; no sales; receipts, 2,049; shipments, none; stocks, 113,311. Quotations unchanged.

DRY GOODS MARKET. New York, Nov. 5.—Cotton goods were steady today. Yarns were firmer. Carpet wool markets were stronger. Flannels for export to Canada were brought freely. Raw silk was steady. Dress goods were quiet.

FINANCIAL MARKET. New York, Nov. 5.—Merchandise paper, 60 1/4; 45-day exchange, steady; 60-day bills, 4.87 1/2; for cable, 4.80; 4.95; for demand, 4.9000; 4.9025. Bar silver, 49 1/2.

Lively Profit Taking Due to Prices Rising to Highest of Season, Responsibility for Downward Turn.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Lively profit taking due to the fact that prices had risen to a higher level than at any time since early in September, brought about a decided downward swing today in wheat. The market closed 3/4 to 1c under last night. Corn suffered a net loss of 1/4 to 1/2, and oats of 1/4 to 1/2. Provisions wound up unchanged to 30c higher.

Grain and provisions closed: Wheat—December, 1.16 1/2; May, 1.12 1/2. Corn—December, 99 1/2; May, 73 1/2. Oats—December, 43 1/2; May, 53 1/2. Pork—January, 19.30; May, 19.60. DECLARES FOR REFORM IN EXPERT TESTIMONY

Supreme Court Delivers Opinions in 22 Appeals

Tilghman vs. Seaboard, No Error; Haas vs. Schools, New Hanover, Cause Remanded; City of Wilmington vs. Cowan, affirmed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—The Supreme Court delivered opinions in 22 appeals this afternoon, an especially notable feature being that in the appeal of Tilghman vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway Company from Wake, in which the court declares for reform in the practice in this State as to expert testimony that was sharply criticized last week by Dr. A. W. Knox in his address before the medical society here. The Supreme Court in this opinion agrees with the doctor that there is necessity for reform so that the courts shall designate the experts to appear as witnesses in the cases and fix their compensation.

In the Tilghman case experts for the plaintiff and for the railroad company swore to directly contrary states of fact. In his appeal the court affirms a judgment for damages against the railroad for injuries in the wreck some months ago when train orders were misread as between "Granby" and "Granite" as meeting place.

The opinions follow: Nelson vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railway, 151, affirmed; Tyson vs. East Carolina Railway Co., Green, no error; Huggins vs. Watters, Sampson, reversed; Rouse vs. Route, Lenoir, affirmed; Forsyth vs. Ott Mills, Wake, no error; Yellowday vs. Perkinson, Wake, no error; Tilghman vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway, Wake, no error; State vs. Powell & Frigden, Pender, no error; Ward vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railway, Columbus, reversed; McPhaul vs. Walters, Hoke, new trial; McCallum vs. McCallum, Robeson, affirmed; Haas vs. Schools, New Hanover, cause remanded; Flowe vs. McNeill, Cumberland, affirmed; State vs. Ross, Forsyth, no error; Daniel vs. Bethel, Rockingham, no error; Irie vs. Kim, Rockingham, no error; Seagraves vs. City of Winston, Forsyth, new trial; Helasbeck vs. Doub, Forsyth, no error; Cox vs. Boyden, Surry, no error; Dillard vs. Simmons, Granville, motion for new trial for newly discovered evidence allowed; City of Wilmington vs. Cowan, New Hanover, court being evenly divided in opinion, Walker J. "not sitting"; the judgments stand affirmed.

ELECTION TICKET THREE FEET LONG BY TWO WIDE

With Candidates of 7 Parties—That's in Arizona—One on "Ardenst." Kingston, N. C., Nov. 5.—Dr. V. E. Weyher, father-in-law of Jack Rountree, a well known county newspaper man, formerly of this city but now of Arizona, yesterday received from him a copy of the official ballot used in Tuesday's election in that State. It was a pink sheet 36 by 23 inches which the Arizona electors were required to puzzle over in selecting their favorites for the State, judicial county and precinct offices. The Democratic, Progressive, Republican, Socialist, Independent, Non-Partisan parties and tickets out.

Several women were office seekers, notably Mrs. Leroy Ikenberry, Socialist, who wanted to be secretary of state; Miss Alice S. Eddy, who sought the clerkship for the county in which Phoenix is situated, and Sara M. Whitfield, aspirant for superintendent of schools in the same county. Miss Eddy is a Socialist, Mrs. Whitfield a Progressive. Five amendments to the constitution, a referendum ordered by petition of the people, and an initiative petition of the people were explained on the big ballot.

For just one hour Tuesday night Arden Taylor, the Democratic sheriff of Lenoir county, was the upstart man in the world, or so he pretended to be.

A practical joker from Institute township, where the sheriff holds residence, telephoned to the official at the court house: "Yes, it's a fact. You fellows cut up down here on rally day so bad that you queered everything. The vote is greatly reduced, and it's 20 to 10 against you." The sheriff gasped. "Say that over," he begged. The informant in a serious, sad tone. "Well, I'll be hanged!" said the pride of Institute, who is known as a "devil" in his own home town, as the popular song has it. The jester, apparently of the sheriff, had a vision of a big, black whiskered person, as all Republican successors of Democratic office holders are generally accepted to be, doing the chores about the yard at the county prison. He rushed out to talk with a landowner the lease of a little farm. He was back to nature for him. The talk of the town for the ensuing sixty minutes was the rumor that Institute township had gone against Arden Taylor. "What did we do to offend those fellows?" the sheriff asked of the other candidates. All agreed that it was a staid, almost pious lot of campaigners who had carried candy to the children of the study, very determined and somewhat religiously inclined planters of Institute. On the 60th minute one man of the audience who heard the returns in Lenoir opera house was more than interested. Sheriff Arden Taylor, whose name has long since been changed by his colleagues to "Ardenst," was delighted. He had every vote cast in the precinct.

RALEIGH Y. M. C. A. ADDS 456 TO ITS MEMBERSHIP

Closes Vigorous Campaign with Total Membership of 500. (Special Star Telegram.) Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 5.—The Raleigh Young Men's Christian Association closed with a big demonstration to-night a campaign for new members that added 456 to its membership roll, giving the association a membership of 500. Division B, captained by J. S. Hammack, won the banner for best work. The association plant represents a valuation of $55,000.

All members and affiliated Master Masons are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the Master. A. S. HOLDEN, Secretary.

ered late in the day, an apparent majority for McGovern had been swept away, leaving the situation much in doubt.

The result in only one congressional district was undetermined tonight. In the first New York district Frederick C. Hicks, Republican, and Representative Lathrop Brown were running on virtually even terms. The outcome probably will not be known until an official count is made.

In computing the Democratic total in the House at 229, William Kettner of the Eleventh California district, who also ran on the Progressive ticket and ranks as a Progressive in the present Congress, is included with the majority party.

Representative John T. Nollin, of the Tenth California district, who ran on the Republican and Progressive tickets and was elected to the present Congress as a Progressive-Republican, is classed with the Republicans. Representative William Kent, of the First California district, is ranged as an Independent. This would give the Progressives seven members of the House.

DANIELS IS CHEERFUL.

Secretary of the Navy Declares Election an Endorsement of Democracy. Washington, Nov. 5.—Secretary Daniels after campaigning throughout New England, Schenck and Middle West, returned to Washington today. He was found ground for Democratic optimism in the election returns. "To have held its own in the Senate, and to have been able to organize the House by the slenderest majority under prevailing conditions shows the confidence of the people in the Wilson policies," he said. "No party before has revised the tariff and shown such a victory in an off year. But for the demoralization of business caused by the war in Europe, conditions would have been as good this fall as to have given Republicans no opportunity to 'come back.' The party in power must take the blame for all financial and industrial disturbances occasioned by the temporary troubles caused by the frightful foreign war. But this will pass."

PROHIBITION DEFEATED.

California Votes "Wet" by Majority of Over 200,000 Ballots. San Francisco, Nov. 5.—Not only did California defeat Statewide prohibition yesterday by a majority that may reach 200,000 but, in referendum amendment, no was adopted prohibiting another vote on the question within a period of eight years.

With more than half the vote counted, the totals tonight for United States Senator were: James D. Phelan, Democrat, 155,570; Joseph Knowland, Republican, 131,309; Francis J. Heney, Progressive, 118,842.

Gor Governor: Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive, 292,553; John D. Frederick, Republican, 131,529; John R. Curtin, Democrat, 61,211.

ANOTHER CLOSE RACE.

Colorado Contest Uncertain Until Official Count Taken. Denver, Colo., Nov. 5.—The official count probably will be required to decide the contest between Charles S. Ericks, Democrat, and Herbert Work, Republican, for United States Senator from Colorado. With approximately 80 per cent of the vote compiled, the count tonight stood: Thomas 54,239; Work 52,541.

KANSAS IS REPUBLICAN

Senator, Governor and Several Congressmen Are Elected. Topeka, Kan., Nov. 5.—Charles Curtis, Republican, will go back to the United States Senate after an absence of two years. With all counties heard from tonight, Curtis has a plurality of 4,782 votes over Congressman George A. Neeley, Democrat.

Arthur Cooper, Republican, has a plurality of 41,742 over Governor George H. Hodges, Democrat, on final figures. The Democrats gained one congressman in the Eighth district from which A. Ayres will succeed Victor Murdock, who left the House to become Progressive candidate for United States Senator.

With one-third counted of the vote for Justice of the Supreme court, elected on a non-partisan ballot, Mrs. Lizzie Sheldon, the woman candidate is running last.

NEED OFFICIAL COUNT.

To Decide Senatorial Contest in Nevada—Close Vote. Carson, Nev., Nov. 5.—Who was elected United States Senator in Nevada Tuesday must remain undetermined until the official canvass of the vote. With 100 out of 240 precincts reported to-night, the vote stood:

Francis G. Newlands, Democrat, 7,751; Samuel Platt, Republican, 7,618.

CLOSE IN WISCONSIN.

Official Count Will Be Needed to Decide Senatorial Contest. Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5.—An official count of Wisconsin's vote for United States Senator tonight appears to be the only way of deciding whether Paul O. Husting, Democrat, or Governor Francis D. Saenger, Republican, has been elected Senator to succeed Isaac Stephenson.

DAVENPORT IS ELECTED.

Related Returns Favor Democrat in First Oklahoma District. Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 5.—Joseph A. Gill, Republican candidate for the First congressional district of Oklahoma, tonight conceded the reelection of Representative James S. Davenport, Democrat, related returns today giving Davenport a majority of approximately 1,000 votes. Earlier returns indicated that Gill had been elected.

Complete returns from 58 counties and incomplete returns from the other counties in Oklahoma give Robert L. Williams, Democrat, a majority of 4,347 over John Fields, Republican candidate for governor.

SHERMAN ELECTED.

Republican Sent to Senate From Illinois by 17,000 Majority. Chicago, Nov. 5.—Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, was reelected to the United States Senate defeating Roger C. Sullivan, his Democratic opponent, by 17,000 majority. Complete returns were tabulated tonight. Sullivan carried Chicago and Cook county by 56,600 votes.

Robins, the Progressive candidate, polled a little more than 50 per cent. Washington, Nov. 5.—The Court of Appeals here today reversed a ruling of a lower court and held that Sunday baseball in the National capital is illegal.

PACKING BUSINESS WILL NOT BE DEMORALIZED

Because of the Quarantine Against Shipment of Cattle Into Illinois.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Disinfecting of the empty pens at the Chicago Union Stock Yards began today in preparation for the complete shut down because of foot and mouth disease that will be in effect from Saturday until November 15. There are 540 acres to be wet down with disinfectant sprays. Eight hundred men will be employed in disinfecting the 13,000 pens, 725 chutes and 25 miles of water troughs.

Supplementing the Federal quarantine against interstate movement of cattle from Illinois, the State Live Stock board has prohibited after Saturday all cattle shipments between points within the State.

Meat packers said today there would be no tie up of their industry as present supplies of cattle were sufficient to keep plants busy during almost all the quarantine period.

Shipment of Three Million Reach Boston From the West. Boston, Mass., Nov. 5.—Three million eggs arrived here today from the West for shipment tomorrow to England whose supply from Russia has been cut off by war. The consignment will be the largest ever sent from this port.

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY.

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy, Says J. Hicks Bunting.

If you are getting thin, you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You cannot be strong if you are thin.

Try then to be healthy and plump; it is not difficult if you know how. The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh-forming food and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh-forming and tissue-building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

Fatness, happiness and health they all go together. How seldom you see a fat person who is not happy. On the other hand, thin people are unhappy and nervous. Use Samose and be well and fat and happy.
